| Description    | ETSU Public Safety received reports around 1:00 a.m. today, Saturday, December 3, 2016, of two separate incidents of armed robbery at Buccaneer Ridge Apartments. In both incidents the students were approached in the parking lot area as they returned to their apartments. Several males, one with a gun, demanded the students hand over their valuables and then told the students to run away from the area. The students complied and were not harmed. |

A similar incident was reported at an off campus apartment complex soon after. Suspects have been detained and arrested. ETSU Public Safety and the Johnson City Police Department are investigating.
