

2022 W-2 Information for Employees

W-2 forms are emailed to employees as a secure pdf attachment. The attachment can be opened by entering the first four characters of your last name, and the last four characters of your social security number. The pdf version includes Copy B which is sometimes requested by your tax preparer.

The W-2 can also be viewed electronically through the Goldlink Employee website.

- Log on to Goldlink with your username and password
- Select the Employee tab or link
- Click on the Employee Dashboard/Self Service tab
- Click on the Taxes link
- Click on W-2 Year End Earnings Statement link
- Select the 2022 Tax Year from the drop down box
- Click Display
- Scroll to the bottom of the webpage and click the "Printable W2" button and print

Paper W-2's will be mailed by the Office of Financial Accounting by January 31, 2023 if the electronic W-2 option was not selected.

Many employees have had questions about the different box numbers on the Form W-2. Boxes 1, 3, and 5 on your W-2 will not match your year-to-date gross in most cases.

Box 1- Wages, Tips, and Other Compensation

This box contains your taxable wages. Taxable wages are computed by subtracting any pre-tax deductions from your gross wages and adding back to your gross wages any taxable fringe benefits such as an automobile allowance. Examples of pre-tax deductions are health insurance premiums, dental insurance premiums, deferred compensation contributions, tax sheltered annuity contributions, flexible spending accounts (medical and dependent care), health savings account, Hybrid Retirement Accounts, and Vision premiums.

Box 2-Federal Income Tax Withheld

This is the federal income tax ETSU withheld from your paychecks. We withhold Federal Income Tax based on the information you submit on your W-4.

Box 3- Social Security Wages

This box contains your Social Security Wages. Social Security Wages are computed similar to Box 1 wages, with the exception of contributions made to retirement plans (such as a 401(k) account). Employee contributions to retirement plans are exempt from income taxes but not from social security taxes. The maximum wages subject to Social Security in 2022 are $147,000. If you were enrolled in 6 hours as an ETSU student while a part-time ETSU employee, your wages were exempt from Social Security.

If you were receiving retirement benefits from TCRS while you were an employee of ETSU, your wages during this period are exempt from Social Security.

Box 4- Social Security Tax Withheld

This is the amount of Social Security Tax withheld from your paychecks. The rate is 6.2% times your Social Security wages.

Box 5- Medicare Wages and Tips

Same as the first paragraph of Box 3, but there is no maximum wage limit.

If you were enrolled in 6 hours as an ETSU student while a part-time ETSU employee, your wages were exempt from Medicare.

Box 6- Medicare Tax Withheld

This is the amount of Medicare Tax withheld from your paychecks. The rate is 1.45% times your Medicare wages.

Anyone who makes over $200,000 is taxed an additional .9% of Medicare tax. The additional tax amount is included in box 6. See the below link for more information:

Box 10- Dependent Care Benefits

This is the pre-tax benefit for amounts deducted from your paycheck.

Box 12:

If you have more than one of the codes listed below, the first code is in box 12a, the next in box 12b, etc.

Code D- Elective deferrals under section 401(k)

Code E- Elective deferrals under section 403(b)

Code G- Elective deferrals under section 457

Code AA-Elective contributions under section 401(k) ROTH

Code DD-Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. This is the employee and employer cost of health insurance and is for information purposes only.

Code W-Employer contributions to a health savings account (HSA). This is the employee and employer contributions.

Box 13- X in the retirement plan box indicates you participated in a retirement plan (TCRS or ORP).

Box 14-Other - This box is used for note purposes.
