

VITA

GABRIELA G. ABREGO

Personal Data:

Date of Birth: November 10th
Place of Birth: San Antonio, Texas

Education:

Doctor of Public Health - Epidemiology, East Tennessee State University, 2020 – Present
Master of Public Health, The George Washington University, 2018 - 2020
Bachelor of Science Public Health, University of Texas at San Antonio, 2014 -2018

Experience:

Graduate Blue Ribbon Intern, Texas Department of State Health Services, Communicable Disease Program and Office of Border Health; San Antonio, Texas, Austin, Texas, Del Rio, Texas, Eagle Pass, Texas, June 2019 – September 2019
Graduate Intern, San Antonio Metropolitan Health District, Epidemiology Program; San Antonio, Texas, October 2018 – January 2019
Intern, San Antonio Metropolitan Health District, HIV/STD Clinic; San Antonio, Texas, May 2018 – August 2018
Undergraduate Intern, Alzheimer's Association; San Antonio, Texas, January 2018 – May 2018
Volunteer, San Antonio Metropolitan Health District, HIV/STD Clinic; San Antonio, Texas, June 2017 – May 2018
Certified Pharmacy Technician, Walgreens; San Antonio, Texas, 2014 – 2020

Presentations:

MPH Culminating Experience Project: "The Benefit of Standardization in Maternal Care to Reduce Maternal Mortality in the United States", May 25, 2020
PowerPoint Texas Department of State Health Services: "Tuberculosis in Region 8", August 8, 2019

Research Experience:

Zika Initiative, Texas Department of State Health Services, Office of Border Health; Role: Analysis of Survey Data and

Report Generation Using Epi Info, June 2019 – September 2019

Honors/Awards:

Hispanic Scholarship Fund, Scholarship, 2014-2018

Research Interest:

Communicable and infectious disease control,
interventions, and surveillance

Minority health

Reproductive health

Women's health