

CURRICULUM VITAE

AMANDA F. BLACKWELDER

Personal Date:

Date of Birth: June 7, 1995
Place of Birth: Charlotte, North Carolina
Email: blackwelder@etsu.edu

Education:

DrPH Epidemiology, East Tennessee State University
Johnson City, Tennessee, (in progress)
M.P.H., Epidemiology, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
Charlotte, North Carolina, 2020
B.S. Environmental Health, Western Carolina University
Cullowhee, North Carolina, 2017

Experience:

Environmental Health Specialist, Appalachian District Health
Department, Boone, North Carolina, June 2020-2021
Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, North Carolina, August 2018-May 2020
Quality Improvement Intern, MEDIC: Mecklenburg County Emergency
Medical Services, Charlotte, North Carolina, May- August 2019
Sr. Environmental Health Specialist (Seasonal), Mecklenburg County
Health Department, Charlotte, North Carolina, May-
September 2019
Student Sanitarian, Oakland County Health Department, Pontiac,
Michigan, May-August 2017
Environmental Assistant, Mecklenburg County Health Department
May-August 2017, 2018

Publications:

“Secondary Triage by Medical First Responders Prior to Ambulance
Dispatch” Patricia Dowbiggin MPH EMT-P, Allison Infinger MSPH,
Amanda Blackwelder EMT-B, Johnathan Studnek PhD NRP

Blackwelder, A., et al. (2021). Effect of Inadequate Sleep on Frequent
Mental Distress. Preventing Chronic Disease, 18.
<https://doi.org/10.5888/pcd18.200573>

Community Service:

Mission of Hope, Haiti
Medical Intern, August-December 2017

Certifications:

North Carolina EMT-Basic
National Environmental Health Association: Registered Environmental Health Specialist
FEMA Incident Command System Training Course: ICS 100, 200, 420, 700 and 800

Research Interest:

Global Health
Neglected Tropical Disease
Infectious Disease Epidemiology
Environmental Health Epidemiology
Medical Epidemiology