Curriculum Vitae

Jacob L. Schultz

Personal Data:	Date of Birth: March 1, 1989 Place of Birth: LaPorte, Indiana
Education:	M.S.G.H. – Global Health, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana (2019) M.S. – Biomolecular Science, Lipscomb University, Nashville, Tennessee (2016) B.P.S. – Organizational Leadership, Lipscomb University, Nashville, Tennessee (2015)
Experience:	Graduate Researcher, University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana (2018 – 2019) Graduate Researcher, Lipscomb University, Nashville, Tennessee, (2015-2016) Director of International Operations, Team DRIVE, Clarksville, Tennessee (2015 – 2019)
Presentations:	Thesis Project: "Characterization of Age in Phlebotomus papatasi Sand Flies using Genetic Markers", University of Notre Dame (2019) Thesis Project: "Dengue Virus Pathogenesis: Genetic Targeting using RIG-I-like Receptor and IRF-3/7", Lipscomb University (2016)
Community Service:	Medical Reserve Corps, Tennessee Department of Health, Johnson City, TN (2020 – Present) General Volunteer, Remote Area Medical, Rockford, Tennessee (2015 – Present)
Volunteering:	Medical Research Intern, LiveBeyond, Thomazeau, Haiti (2018) Medical Volunteer, LiveBeyond, Thomazeau, Haiti (2016, 2017) Medical Volunteer, Lipscomb University, Lima, Peru (2014) General Volunteer, Mission Lazarus, Port-au-Prince, Haiti (2012)