the population is food insecure and 98,000 of our neighbors live in poverty. Each month, Second Harvest serves 43,000 individuals through direct programs like the school backpack program or it's Mobile Food pantry or by partnering with community food banks. Our service days usually have us packing food for school backpacks or boxing donated food for community pantries. Additional hands help this work go faster.

We have continued our Eat and Chat programs at Golden Corral, 3104 Browns Mill Road, Johnson City. On Thursday February 9th, Sunny Sandos from ETSU University Advancement talked to our Eat & Chat group about the benefits of IRA Charitable Rollovers and Charitable bequests as part of estate planning. Our next Eat and Chat will be Wednesday April 5th with guest speaker Ron Roach, PhD, Chair ETSU Appalachian Stud-

President's Report

ETSURA members continue to volunteer at 2nd Harvest Food Bank from 9am-noon on the second Wednesday of each month. Join your fellow retirees on March 8th, April 12th, May 10th and June 14th as we help our neighbors become food sufficient. Second Harvest serves the 8 counties in Upper East Tennessee where 14% of ies. Join your fellow retirees for lunch at Golden Corral from 11:45 am until 1:45 pm and learn about the scope of ETSU's Appalachian Studies program(s) and it's curricular opportunities for our students.

Last year, ETSURA funded sixteen scholarship awards ($500 each) to help students offset educational costs at ETSU. Each year, interest earned from the Dr. Mack Davis ETSURA Scholarship Fund is available to the University Scholarship Committee to assist students in funding their education. You can help grow this ETSURA sponsored endowment by making a contribution to the Dr. Mack Davis ETSURA Scholarship Fund c/o ETSU Human Resources PO Box 70564, Johnson City, TN 37614 with checks made out to ETSU. Growth in this fund will allow us to help provide additional student scholarships.

Plan to attend both our June Picnic which will again be at the new Johnson City Food City (Depot at Franklin Commons , Food City second floor , 920 N Roan) as this venue was well received last year and our annual Fall banquet which will again be at Johnson City Country Club. Dates for both events will follow shortly.

Let your board members know what additional programs you'd like to see developed and how this organization can better serve you.

Dr. David Kalwinsky
President

Service Opportunity for ETSURA Members

The Humane Society of Washington County is looking for volunteers to assist them with grant writing.

They have researched some grants for which they can apply but need some guidance on how to proceed. There are several grants that would help spay/neuter pit bulls/pit bull mixes, and feral cats. This area has too many of both, and it is not healthy for the human population and terribly hurtful for the animal population. Please contact Linda Bearfield at bearfilw@gmail.com or at

(423) 791-0785.

Events

Eat and ChitChat

Eighteen people braved a light drizzle to dine at the Golden Corral at noon on February 9th, and listen to Sunny Sandos, JD, Director of Planned Giving at ETSU. Her talk was especially relevant to retirees, who are past the hectic demands of a day job and able to focus on their legacy. Her emphasis was to “do it now” rather than at the last minute when time is of the essence. “Doing it now” also allows donors to see the results of their generosity.

Aside from outright monetary gifts, which could be an Endowment for a cherished cause, there are Bequests (gifts from one’s estate), Charitable Remainder Trusts (gifts that produce a tax deduction now and an income stream for life), Blended Gifts (part now, part later), and IRA Charitable Rollovers, where one can avoid the tax on the required minimum distribution by contributing that amount to charity. This is attractive for those who do not itemize their taxes, since one cannot also claim a charitable deduction. A Testamentary Unitrust is a Charitable Rollover applied more to an overall estate plan.

Sunny emphasized that potential donors must clear everything with their attorneys, accountants, and estate planners beforehand to ensure they won’t be caught short. ETSU accepts liquid (cash, equities) and capital (real estate, collectibles, fine art) assets. A third party appraiser is required in the latter instance. They will not accept time shares, which can be problematic. Consultation with her office is free.

I invited Sunny to stay and mingle with the retirees, unless she had a prior commitment. She said she only had to iron her husband’s white shirt for that night’s basketball game. I said, “so you do have a “pressing” engagement!”

Disclosure: her husband is Jay Sandos, the “Voice of the Bucs.” Since the games are now televised (ESPN3), he is the “Face of the Bucs” and needs a clean, ironed white shirt.

Mike Miyamoto

There is an apparent camaraderie between the ETSURA board members and their goal of making the association work, all the while enjoying the fellowship. This fellowship extends to after hours. Apparently, there are spontaneous get-togethers, like a recent breakfast at Perkins, with new, current, and former board members. Shown here are new member Gail Burluson, current members Priscilla Ramsey, Judy Story, and Mike Miyamoto (behind the viewfinder), and past member Ethel Garrity.
