2023 Shae Keane Peacebuilder Award – Jeremy Dubhros

This award recognizes individual achievements in peacemaking, leadership, community service and activism. Examples include activities in the areas of civil rights, cross-cultural understanding, economic and social justice, environmental protection as well as activities that help advance peace and human dignity.

Jeremy Dubhros is the former president and current Delegate at Large for Students for Appalachian Studies. Jeremy used his work as a Sociology M.A. candidate in collaboration with Students for Appalachian Studies to offer a Veteran's Fair in Spring 2023. This event was an overwhelming success for the community partners who work with and benefit veterans, and the community praised how beneficial the fair was in not only helping veterans be aware of community services and opportunities but in also creating community. Jeremy also expands his work in harm reduction around veteran suicide, homelessness rates, and substance abuse.

Most Improved Student Organization of 2023 – Sigma Kappa

This award recognizes significant improvement in the overall functioning, visibility, and level of activity of student organizations.

The One to Watch! 2024 – South Asian Student Association

This award recognizes a newly formed student organization that has demonstrated extraordinary potential in its first year on campus. Student groups applying for this recognition must have been granted "active" status by the SAO during the 2023 calendar (Jan-Dec) year.

2023 Jan Phillips Mentor Award – Dr. Christine Anzur- Dept. of Communication Studies & Storytelling

Mentors are an important part of personal and professional development of student leaders. They are guides through times when people need someone who is able to point them in the right direction. Good mentors are enthusiastic people, enjoying the role they play in helping others achieve their goals. This award recognizes an exceptional faculty, staff, alumni or community member who has served in the role of mentor during the 2023 Calendar Year.

Student Government Association Awards

The SGA Student Success Champion Award - Carter Warden, Theresa Marlow, & Dr. Michelle Byrd

The SGA Student Success Champion award is given to faculty or staff member who has gone above and beyond to support student leaders in the SGA. Champions are committed to developing students into citizens who will contribute to their campus, their community, and their world. They invest substantial time in the discussion and exploration of ideas. They consider the vision of SGA members and help students navigate toward achieving those goals. In the end, they care, and our campus is a better place because of them.

The Tait Obadiah White Award – Brooke Patterson

This award is named for and in honor of Tait Obadiah White, who attended ETSU from 2011 to 2012 . Tait was an outstanding student leader and a member of the Student Government Association who passed away unexpectedly of a rare heart condition in October 2012. Each year since 2013, the Student Government Association has selected from its members an individual who emulates Tait’s commitment to servant leadership, someone whose spirit brings happiness to others, someone who gives of themselves, and someone who always helps others through small and simple actions. The award is presented annually and is selected by a vote of all SGA members.

Cabinet Member of the Year Award – Morgan Blazer

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

Associate Justice of the Year Award – Taylor Parsons

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

Senator of the Year Award – Samuel Adenekan

The award is presented annually and is selected by the SGA President.

The Ronald & Edith J Carrier Student Government Leadership Award

Brooke Patterson
Macy Strader
Noah Cole

Trent White
Sam Hensley

Dr. Ronald E. Carrier served as president of James Madison University with his wife Edith by his side as First Lady from 1971-1998. Ronald and Edith also served side-by-side years earlier in the Student Government Association at East Tennessee State University. In honor of their experience in student government at the university, Ronald and Edith established this award. This award includes a monetary gift and bronze medal worn on a blue and gold neck ribbon.

Citi Leadership Scholarship Award

Emma Hynson

The purpose of the Citi Leadership Scholarship is to provide incentive for students to participate in leadership development experiences. Scholarship funds are provided to help students pay to participate in local, national, or regional leadership education opportunities. This scholarship is funded in recognition of the ideals of leadership at Citi in Gray, Tennessee and to facilitate the development of future leaders of our society.

Dorman Stout Leadership Endowment Scholarship

Taylor Rigsby

Dr. Dorman G. Stout was an icon of student life at ETSU and an alumnus, having graduated as a part of the class of 1952. Stout was the son of the longtime sociology professor for whom Roger-Stout Hall is named. He served as director of financial aid, assistant to the dean, dean of students, and then as vice president of student affairs until his retirement in 1996. He created this award to recognize outstanding student leadership. The award criteria denote that the student to be recognized will be active in leadership within organizations both on campus and within the community at large. The recipient will demonstrate the leadership traits and character of integrity represented by the life and service of Dr. Stout to East Tennessee State and to humankind.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

The National Leadership Honor Society

Omicron Delta Kappa was the first college honor society of a national scope to give recognition and honor for meritorious leadership and service in extracurricular activities and to encourage development of general campus citizenship. ETSU Buccaneers selected for ODK join the ranks of over 300,000 women and men whose peers recognize them as scholars and leaders. They are truly students who leave a significant impact on their university. A total of 12 outstanding students will be inducted in 2024.

Morgan Blazer is an active student at ETSU with a passion for academic excellence, community engagement. She serves as a Supplemental Instruction Leader and Academic Coach at ETSU, supporting her peers in their academic endeavors. Morgan has also contributed to university research as an Undergraduate Research Assistant and coordinated a Nutrition Panel featuring local experts. Outside of academics, she has been involved in health education, serving as a Health Presenter at the VA Health Fair and an Alternative Break Site Leader. Morgan's leadership extends to coaching the Newport Cocke County Rapids Swim Team, serving as Chief of Staff for Student Government Association, and interning at organizations like Good Samaritan Ministries and A Step Ahead Foundation. Her diverse experiences demonstrate her commitment to making a positive impact on both campus and in the community.

AQ Hanna is an accomplished student at ETSU, holding the titles of Bert C. Bach Fine & Performing Arts Scholar and Mary V. Jordan Diversity Scholar. She has consistently made the Dean's List since 2022 and has taken on leadership roles such as Residential Advisor, Public Relations Officer for the ETSU Asian American Student Association and Vice President of the ETSU Creative Writing Society. Hanna is also an active member of the 411 team, an Expedition Leader, and an organizer for TEDxETSU. Her passion for writing is evident through her publications in journals like The Aurora Journal, Yuzu Press, and The Mockingbird Poetry Prize in 2024. Despite her busy schedule, Hanna remains committed to academic excellence, creative expression, and community involvement at ETSU.

Hazlee Kleine is a dedicated student at ETSU with a passion for research, leadership, and community engagement. She presented her research at the Appalachian Student Research Forum and has been an active participant in Sigma Kappa intramural sports serving as team captain for basketball in 2023 and participating in volleyball, football, and softball in previous years. In leadership roles, Hazlee has served as President and Vice President of Sigma Kappa Gamma Lambda Chapter, Secretary of Allocations for the Student Government Association, and Senator from 2020-2022. She is also involved in various organizations including Health Occupations Students of America, Christian Medical and Dental Association, AMSA, National Society of Leadership and Service, and the Student Social Work Association. Hazlee's academic achievements include making the Fall Dean's List in 2020 and the Spring Dean's List in 2022 & 2023, and she has been honored with the Ronald & Edith J Carrier Student Government Award.

Dillon Minnix is a prominent leader at ETSU. He has been an active member of the Honors College, serving as an ambassador in both 2022 and 2023. Dillon's leadership skills are further demonstrated through his involvement with Interfraternity Council, where he has held the position of Vice President of Financial Affairs. In 2024, Dillon's leadership reached new heights as he was elected President of the Interfraternity Council. His fraternity recognizes his dedication and leadership, nominating him as their representative for Fraternity Man of the Year. Dillon's commitment to service and leadership continues to make a significant impact at ETSU.

Kiran Nieves-Noel is an accomplished student leader at East Tennessee State University, serving as the President of the Model United Nations and Vice President of Pi Sigma Alpha, the national political honor society. Alongside her academic and leadership roles, Kiran has also excelled in the community, earning the 1st runner up title in the Miss Kingsport/Miss Sullivan County pageant. Additionally, she has been recognized as a Cultural Leadership Summit via the Department of State Alumni. Kiran's diverse experiences showcase her commitment to academic excellence, community engagement, and leadership both on campus and beyond.

Dhara Patel is an active student leader at ETSU with a strong commitment to healthcare, research, and community service. She has served as a secretary for the Allied Health Student Association, assisting new students in navigating opportunities within the healthcare field, and has been involved in undergraduate research on pharmacology, addiction, and operant psychology. Dhara presented her research at the national Society for Neuroscience conference, representing ETSU. Additionally, she has demonstrated leadership as a three-year member of the Preview and Orientation Leader Organization and has participated in campus and local clean-ups with the Student Environmental Health Association. Dhara has also contributed to community service projects with Circle K International and volunteered at a facility caring for traumatic brain injury victims. She was selected to speak on a panel at a new student Preview event, sharing her experiences and insights with incoming students.

Brooke Patterson is a Political Science major at ETSU and a standout student leader. She has held key roles within the Student Government Association, including Executive Vice President, Senator, and Associate Justice. As a leader in Alpha Delta Pi, Brooke has served as President and Vice President in multiple candidates, earning awards such as Most Outstanding New Sorority Member in 2020, the Dorothy Shaw Leadership Award, and Chapter of the Year. Her advocacy skills are evident as a two-time Student Lobbyist, representing both Alpha Delta Pi and Greek Life. Brooke's leadership extends to Women in Political Science, where she served as Vice President and she was selected for the evaluation of the political science program. As a pioneer ETSU Ambassador, she was among 25 selected for this elite program. Brooke's commitment to service includes volunteering at the Southern Appalachian Ronald McDonald House and serving as a Red Coat Ambassador for the Veteran's Affairs Hospital. Her academic excellence is reflected in her consistent placement on the Dean's List, and she is a participant in the Honors College Changemakers Program. With her nomination for Most Outstanding Sorority Woman in 2023, Brooke's impact and leadership at ETSU are undeniable.

Finn Shirley is an engaged student at ETSU. He collaborated with the Changemaking Director to create a "Changemaking Abroad" study abroad program and led efforts to compile a mental health resource database for students. Academically, Finnigan has written research papers on topics like Russian politics and Chinese politics. Outside the classroom, he maintains an active lifestyle through hockey, tennis, climbing, and soccer. Finnigan's leadership extends to his fraternity, where he organizes service projects, and the Student Government Association, where he serves as a Senator and participates in various committees. He has volunteered at the Johnson City

Veterans Affairs Medical Center and led service initiatives as a Preview Leader. Additionally, Finnigan is an active member of the Pre-Law Society and gained legal experience as a runner for Hunter, Smith, and Davis. Despite his busy schedule, Finnigan remains focused on academic excellence and community service at ETSU.

Abigail Simpson is an accomplished student at ETSU with a 4.0 GPA. She is actively involved in campus research and serves as a clogging instructor and manager at a local dance studio, overseeing operations and teaching students aged 2-21, and choreographing routines. At ETSU, Abigail is a member of several clubs including the Rehabilitative Health Sciences Club, ETSU Letters of Love, and the ASHA Club, and she is Roan Scholar in the Roan Scholarship Leadership Program. As a preview and orientation leader for three years, she choreographed a dance for a regional conference and initiated a memorial blanket project for COVID-19 victims. Abigail has also engaged in community service through alternative breaks, and internships, leads a program at her home high school, organizes book dives, and volunteers at Johnson City Medical Center. Additionally, she is a competitive dancer and choreographer, performing nationally and internationally, including in the London's New Year's Day Parade with Americas Clogging All Stars.

Hailey Story is a Global Citizen Scholar at ETSU's Honors College, majoring in a field to be specified. Her commitment to global citizenship is showcased through extensive study-abroad experiences, including courses in London, Dublin, and Paris, totaling 15 credit on Human Rights and Global Citizenship. Hailey has demonstrated strong leadership within the Student Government Association, serving as Senator, Parliamentarian, and Chief Justice. She has also excelled in the Tennessee Intercollegiate State Legislative, receiving accolades for the best overall delegation and contributing as an associate justice and student lawyer. In her sorority, Sigma Kappa, Hailey has held roles like Vice President of Programming and Chapter Housing chair, while also gaining professional experience as a congressional intern and expedition leader. Despite taking a semester abroad in Fall 2023, Hailey's commitment to academics, leadership, and service remains unwavering.

Shaina Thompson is a dedicated student leader at ETSU, participating in the Roan Scholars Leadership Program and serving as a 2nd year POLO Leader. She founded the on-campus initiative, Letters of Love at ETSU, and has organized events promoting compassion, unity, and love. Shaina is actively working to charter it as an official organization and has spoken at campus events about the power of spreading kindness. Additionally, she has volunteered as interpreter at a local high school, facilitated youth leadership at her church for three years, and participated in Alternative Breaks as a freshman. Shaina's commitment to leadership, community service and academic excellence is further demonstrated by her consistent placement on the Dean's List and membership in the Phi Alpha Nu Social Work Honor Society.

Caleb Vaughn is a dynamic student at ETSU involved in Mock Trial as a Senior Advisor and the Pre-Law Society, showcasing his interest in law and debate. He's an active member of the Honors College and has enriched his education through a Study Abroad program. On campus, Caleb leads as a Preview and Orientation Leader, Expedition Leader, and as a Bucfluencer, connecting with the ETSU community. In the arts, he's part of the Fine and Performing Arts Honors Program, having performed in notable productions like "Straight White Men," "Bright Star" "The Curious Incident of the Dog In The Night Time," and "Little Shop of Horrors," earning a double nomination for the Irene Ryan Award. His Mock Trial team achievements include winning the Owl Classic Mock Trial Competition and securing a Regional Competition Bid.

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

“The Summit: A Celebration of Distinguished Student Leaders and Programs” celebrates the superior accomplishments of students outside the classroom. It recognizes student organization presidents and advisors, community service efforts, campus programs, and outstanding student leaders at East Tennessee State University.

Chosen by a committee of students, faculty, and staff, the name of the event — “The Summit” — refers to the attainment of the highest possible level of achievement. It visually invokes an image of the topmost point of a mountain, reaching the pinnacle of success by overcoming many obstacles and challenges along the way.

Congratulations to all Summit Award Recipients!
